Your journey into the world of exquisite real estate begins with Asherah Villas, inspired by the goddess Asherah, famous for her symbolic representation of the "Tree of Life." Historically, Asherah, known to us from numerous ancient sources, is revered as the queen of heaven and the mother of gods, symbolizing the spirit of the sea and embodying harmony with nature.

The villas are constructed by the Paradise Coastal Villas team - a team of professionals dedicated to the highest standards of luxury and eager to bring your boldest dreams to life. Their in-house team of experts with a decade of experience in real estate, marketing, design, and architecture guarantees exceptional quality at every stage of the project's realization.

Asherah Villas are nestled in a picturesque location near a century-old Banyan tree. The total project area covers 11,200 square meters, with plans to build 20 single-story villas with three or four bedrooms and pools. The size of each villa ranges from 405 to 643 square meters, while interior spaces start at 170 square meters.

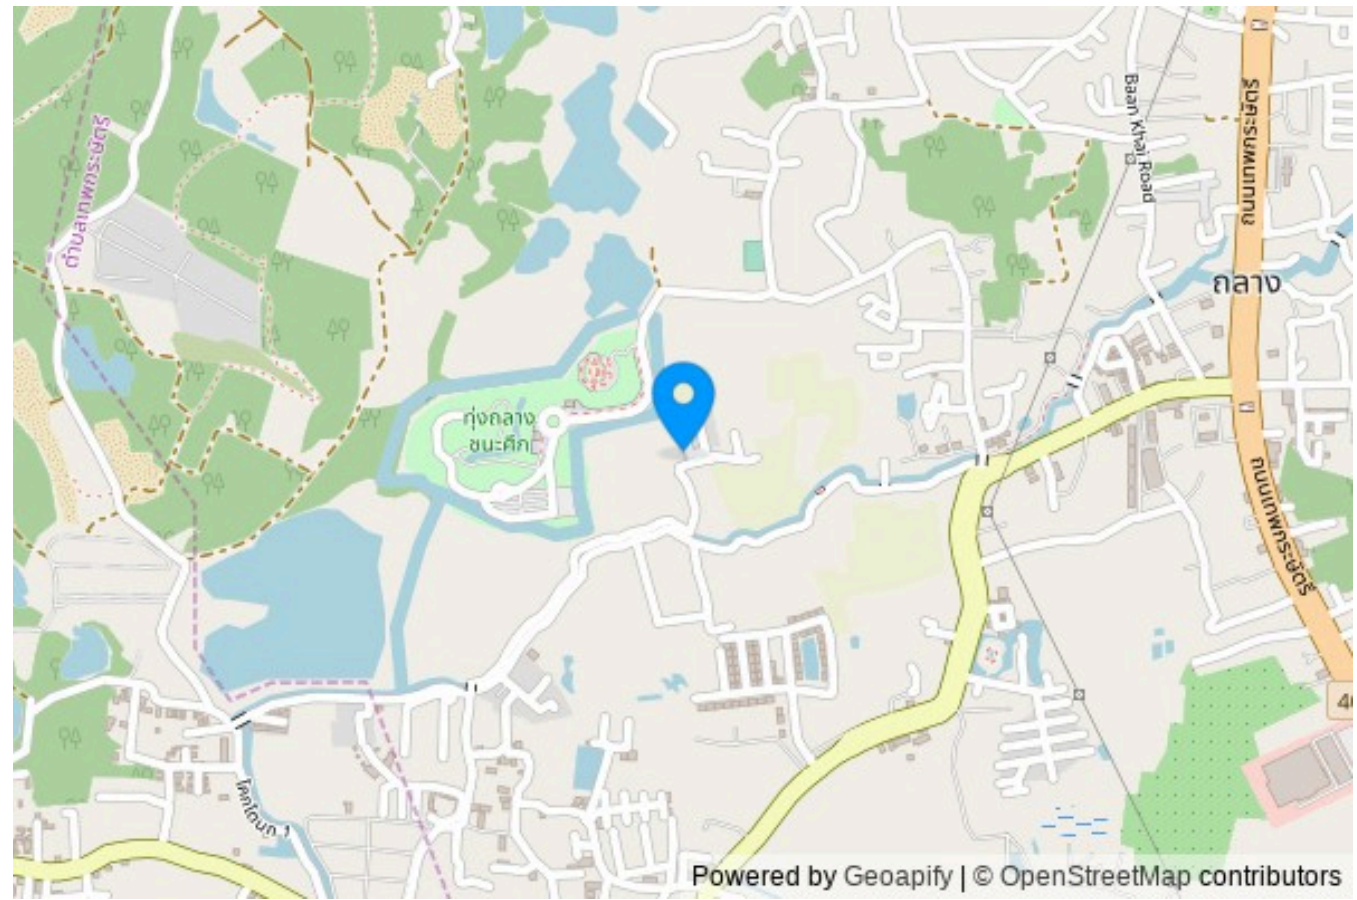

Asherah Villas is where the heart and soul find refuge. Here, the lush greenery, the whisper of the wind, light, and wooden elements in the villa design create an atmosphere that stimulates relaxation, meditation, and creativity.

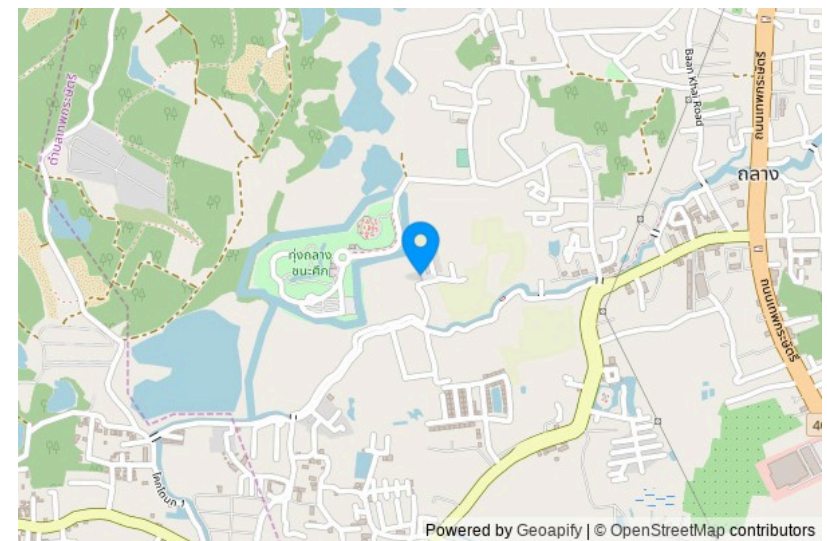

Your home at Asherah Villas is comfort and tranquility. Enjoy spacious and perfectly landscaped grounds. Here, modern design and nature coexist in harmony, offering you unforgettable experiences.

The villas boast a unique "light and shadow" design, the first of its kind in Phuket. This approach includes an innovative environmental protection system that generates solar energy and maximizes the use of natural lighting.

The interior design of the villas carefully reflects the culture and traditions of Thailand. Smooth architectural lines and meticulously designed landscape decor create a unique blend of light and shadow, accentuating the natural beauty of the surroundings and creating an atmosphere of island living.

Don't miss the opportunity to make one of these prestigious villas your own! Contact us today to learn more about how Asherah Villas can become your new paradise corner.
