Sugar Villas is your personal haven of luxury amidst untouched nature. Situated on a plot of 8,000 sq.m. and facing the Andaman Sea, these villas in Kamala will be your place. The complex has just 6 spacious villas, each of which is designed to allow owners to enjoy spectacular sea and jungle views.

The developer's company specialists are always ready to help - the office is conveniently located right on the territory of the complex. And today you can become part of this unique community - the management company guarantees support to villa owners on an ongoing basis. The interior features of each villa are thought out to the smallest detail. Only the highest quality materials and furniture from leading brands are used. Each villa has a private swimming pool with jacuzzi and garden. Stone panels decorating the external walls create a unique impression of contact with nature.

Don't miss the opportunity to become the owner of such a property in Phuket, where the combination of design, style and functionality complement each other perfectly. Sugar Villas is an address indicating the status of the owner. Find out more at Kalinka Realty and start your journey to island living today.
