Each villa is designed in a modern tropical style, adapting interiors to the individual needs of clients. Despite this, the basic principles of design and planning are observed, allowing for lush shady gardens on the property and spacious interiors inside the villa.

In essence, this type of house is constructed in such a way that the founder and leading designer Mary Pakamard would personally like to live in each of them.

Punyisa Villas Bang Jo are conveniently located in one of the most sought-after residential areas of Phuket, approximately halfway between the Heroines Monument and Laguna. The Bang Jo area is just 10-15 minutes away from the most beautiful beaches of Phuket, Laguna Phuket Golf Club, and only a few minutes from the bustling areas of Cherng Talay, Bang Tao, and Surin, as well as from the main highways to the airport and leading international schools, such as BIS and UWC.
